"Welcome to the faster, smarter, more powerful way to rent or lease mining rigs. Whether you're new and want to try mining out before you buy equipment or you're a veteran looking for more hash at a coin launch, MiningRigRentals.com is your one stop website. Our service has been developed from the ground up by miners for the mining community. Choose an algorithm to get started:"

"We now offer more then just mining rigs, you can choose to mine at MiningRigRental's own Pool. Why settle for pools without a robust interface and little support. Here at MiningRigRentals, we offer the interface and support you need to keep track of your mining needs. Currently supporting SHA256, X11, and Scrypt."
